IMPORTANT. See instructions on back of certificates. Exact statement of OCCUPATION is very important. If death occurred in a hospital or institution, the name of the hospital must be given instead of the street and number. If the deceased was not a resident of the city or town where death occurred, the length of residence should be given for the information of the local registrar. If the place of death is unknown, the coroner should be notified at once. The medical certificate should be completed and signed by the attending physician, if there was one, and he should specify the time in attendance. If there was no physician in attendance, or if he refuses to sign, the coroner must be notified before a certificate is issued. If the cause of death is not definitely known, the coroner must be notified before a certificate is issued. The certificate must be filed with the local registrar before a burial permit is issued.
